President's Message

Happy New Year 2016! It is always exciting to start a new year with great expectations for it and I for one am looking forward to 2016. We of course as a Guild had a few ups and downs in 2015. The cancellation of the Spring Show was not a good thing but with much determination and hard work our Holiday Show was a success with increased attendance and an amazing cast of our juried craftsmen and artists created a Holiday Spectacular. We ended the year with a beautiful night of great food and friendships shared at the Yellow House Hotel in December. In 2016, I would love to see more of our members and guests attend our monthly meetings. Matt Vardjan, our program chair, does a great job in getting some great programs for us throughout the year. On January 5, 2016, our first general meeting for 2016, we will be doing an activity for our program. Sounds like fun! Attending the general meetings of our Guild is a great and active way of participating in your Guild. I know we all have a lot to do and life is just plain hectic; but if you attend even just a few of the meetings during the course of year, I believe you will feel more informed. I know that I value our craftsmen's opinions and ideas and I find your input a valuable tool in the workings of your Guild. I leave you with this final note: I know it seems like we just finished with our Holiday show and here it is already....Tadahhhh! Our Spring Fine Arts and Crafts Festival. The contract is signed and the dates are April 2 and 3, 2016, at the beautiful Kutztown University Fieldhouse. Get those applications in. The show committee has never stopped working.

"Destiny is not a matter of chance; it is a matter of choice. It is not a thing to be waited for; it is a thing to be achieved." William Jennings Bryan, American lawyer and statesman.

Festivals

Hello to all in 2016,

We will have our next meeting on the 5th of January, right before the General meeting. This is a VERY important meeting wrapping up 2015 and starting all over again, anew for 2016.

We'd like to thank everyone that had anything to do with our Guild Show. We had a very interesting year for the shows. From the bottom with a heart breaking canceled show in the spring; to the top with the best holiday show we have had for many years. We have a lot of data to go through to see were, what, how and, hope to have the answer about the success for our future shows.

We are looking for anyone with talents to join us with our ever changing shows. It takes a village to keep our cost down, and to continue give a top notch designer, Master Craftsmen, Juried fine Art shows. We strive to give our patrons the best of the best products all one of a kind, And Made in America.

Thank all of you for your support. Please get your applications in for very hot show coming the first weekend in April. (The week after Easter.)

Thanks from

Terry & Judy Boyer Show chairs

Saturday, December 5, 2015 was a beautiful crisp day for Christmas on the Farm. Attendance topped 1,000 for this event, and downtown Kutztown also held their 2nd annual Holiday event, so it brought many people out for the first time to PGCHC.

Our next event will be Easter on the Farm to be held the day before Palm Sunday, Saturday, March 19, 2016, from 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM. We can accommodate more artisans in the Guild's Log Cabin. We can always count on Barry Bennecoff to display his furniture and cabinets throughout the cabin, which gives many opportunities to display other work on and in these beautiful pieces of furniture. (and Barry would be delighted to display your work on his furniture -- it would help him in that he wouldn't need to bring accessories). Matt and Elaine Vardjan are always in the alcove area of the stairway with their Moravian Star creations.

The only fee is a 15% commission to PGCHC payable to Kutztown University for your sales of the day.

Hope you'll consider this event and add it to your 2016 show schedule. Contact Amanda Richardson at PGCHC if you plan to participate so that your name can be included in the program. In addition to the Guild's Log Cabin we have a large heated tent for vendors as well as outside spots where you may bring your own canopy to set up. We also have a tent for children's activities which is very popular with the children as well as the Easter Egg Hunts that day.

Senior Course

Just to let you know that my son Scott and I will be teaching a short course at Alvernia University's "Senior College" in February, 2016. Alvernia is located near Reading, PA.

The course title will be "Exploring Key West Through Its Bars, Buildings, and Business Entrepreneurs." Scott will have the lead in this program; I'll be doing mostly history topics. The course will run one and a half -hours per day, for three Thursdays (11, 18, and 25 February 2016). The time period is 11:30 a.m. until 1 p.m. Refreshments will be served and a "tropical atmosphere" will be maintained.

To attend, however, you must be a registered member (student) of the University's "Senior School." Details are at the following website:

For the month of December “Your Berks Craftsmen” featured Steve Hunter, master potter. It was fun interviewing Steve and he actually allowed me to become a potter that night. Don’t worry Steve, I was not able to convince Barry to buy me a ton of clay to create teapot handles. He thinks I need a little more instruction but thanks for the experience. In January, “Your Berks Craftsmen” will take us on a whirlwind tour of the Kutztown Folk Festival 2015. BCTV was on location and did a fantastic job. This is a show that will get you ready for the Folk Festival Experience 2016.

If you want to be a guest craftsman on “Your Berks Craftsmen” please let me know.

Your Host for BCTV, Kay Bennecoff
