This event is outside under the pavilion, rain or shine. Application deadline is April 15, 2024

SET-UP: 7 AM, May 4th. The show opens at 9:00.

- Location is in Pavilion 1. This pavilion has a macadam floor, roof but no sides.
- Pull one vehicle up to any available space in Pavilion 1, spaces are first come, first served. You may save a space for another crafter if you want to make sure you are next to each other. Please place a chair or something in the saved space so it is obvious to crafters arriving after you. You may leave your car at your space. Please do not pull your car onto the macadam floor of the pavilion.
- Spaces have 12 foot frontage, and can extend to 15 feet deep. Two, 32 inch x 8 foot, tables will be in each space. No chairs are provided, so please bring your own.
- Booth structures or materials should not extend into the main center aisle.
- Although there are no display requirements, please display your crafts in a professional manner. The supplied tables are very rustic, consider bringing table covers. Please keep your area neat and clean.
- All items displayed must be the work of the craftsperson of record and must conform to the Reading-Berks Guild standards: excellence in craftsmanship, resolved design, and a unique voice or style. When possible, work should contain the maker's signature or hallmark. Excluding photography and note cards, prints of original art must be clearly marked Print, on the product. No "seconds" or "sale" signs are permitted. All shows are floor juried. Work displayed must be representative of your submitted application or you will be asked to remove it.
